Business update: 21 December 2021

As always, our team here at Prospect House are at your service and want to make sure you are up to date with all we are doing during this time.

We are closely following the guidelines set out by the Tasmanian government and the Department of Health to deliver a safe experience for all staff and guests. Our guests and team's safety during this time has always and remains our greatest priority.

Covid safe workplace

We have a comprehensive Covid-19 safety plan and tracing procedure that ensures your stay or visit to Prospect House is safe and as comfortable as possible. All guests are required to check-in via the check-in TAS application each time you arrive to the hotel.

Mask mandate and vaccination

All our staff are fully vaccinated with few already receiving their boosters. Interstate visitors are required to be fully vaccinated prior to travels. If traveling interstate, please refer to the coronavirus.tas.gov.au website.

A state-wide mask mandate has gone into effect as of 00.01am Tuesday, 21st December. All staff and visiting guests are required to wear masks. If you are seated and dining/drinking you may remove your mask. At all other times a mask is required to be properly worn, unless with a medical exemption.

Operating Hours

Accommodation 7-days. Restaurant dining room open Wednesday – Sunday. A light dinner menu is offered for staying guests Monday and Tuesday.

Our reservations and office hours are 7-days. We are contactable between 8am – 9pm each day however for reservations we recommend calling between 10am – 4pm outside of peak dining hours.

Cancellations policy

In the event of border closures or if needing to isolate for 14-days on arrival to Prospect House we have implemented a flexible cancellations policy. Please connect with us at the hotel to discuss changing your booking dates if required. Prospect is unable to cater for guests in quarantine.

For all accommodation and dining enquiries please email reservations@prospecthouseprivatehotel.com.au. You can also book accommodation, dining and vouchers purchase from our website.

Warm wishes and we look forward to hosting you again soon,

The Prospect House team
